A person suffering from a devastating injury or loss needs a legal team that will work hard, obtain prompt and favorable results, and be willing to take a case to trial. Our mission is to serve each client aggressively, with empathy, and with an uncompromising pursuit of our clients' legal interests during times of personal challenge.

David W. Holub is a Board Certified Civil Trial Advocate with 30 years of experience in handling complex personal injury and medical claims. The firm has a team of dedicated and experienced lawyers, paralegals, and an in-house investigator. We consult top medical and technical specialists for our clients, and bring a reputation for excellence and integrity to each case, whether it is a vehicle crash, industrial accident, or other injury. We welcome referrals from attorneys across Indiana and the United States.
